A Caring Ministry of Visitation

Do you enjoy visiting with other people?

It's a simple question and one which many of us—even introverts like myself—can answer with a “yes.”

One of my responsibilities as a pastor is to visit people. Sometimes that involves going to their homes. Sometimes it means going to the hospital or care center. Sometimes there are visits in my church office. Sometimes visits are over the phone, at the grocery store or a sporting game.

Visitation is quite possibly the greatest joy for me in ministry, but it can also be one of the most challenging because of the time visitation takes. Prayer and communion can be fairly brief, but I enjoy the coffee and conversation, too!

Many of you also enjoy coffee and conversation and so I'm asking for your help. In conversation with the church council, we would like to recognize the “caring ministry of visitation” which already happens among our United Lutheran members and also support and equip you in this important work.

There are many people in our congregation who need regular human companionship for a check-in and conversation. I can't do this alone, nor should I, when we are all called to care for one another and many of you are already doing this so well!

To this end, after worship on Sunday, September 22, I would like to invite you to a visitation ministry information meeting to talk more about how we can support one another as we support those we visit. Who are people in our congregation needing to be visited? When is it important to let me know a pastoral visit is needed? How can someone add praying together to their coffee and conversation?

Care is one of the key parts to a healthy community. Together, we are the body of Christ, supporting one another. I thank you for the care you already provide and hope to see you at our meeting after worship on September 22!

In Christ, the great caregiver,

Pastor Karl

Endowment

As of August 28, our Endowment Fund balance was $112,004.14. If you would like to make a contribution to the United Lutheran Church Endowment Fund, please make checks payable to "InFaith Foundation" (which manages our endowment fund).

Council Notes 08-19-19 Mtg

Enrollment for Sunday school is good. Due to less teachers volunteering for Sunday school than hoped, we will not be offering a PreK class. We will offer three intergenerational Sundays over three-day weekends this school year.

This fall, Mikkelsen Construction will be opening up the church sewer line and grating the parking lot. Jenson's is behind schedule on our sanctuary HVAC.

Council agreed to advise 50% of the honorariums given to the funeral committee be offered to the funeral coordinator to compensate for their time.

Council approved advertising for a Youth Ministry Coordinator at 20 hours/month and $5,000 year salary. Pastor is drafting a job description.

Pastor shared with Council the recent ELCA Churchwide vote to be a "sanctuary denomination" and what it means.

Full Council minutes, treasurers reports and pastors' reports are posted monthly on the bulletin board in the hall across from the church kitchen.

August Memorials

No memorials were received in August.

Memorials may be given at any time by being mailed or brought to the Church Office at United Lutheran.

Sunday School

The 2019-2020 Sunday school year will kick off on September 8. We will begin with a few minutes with everyone in the fellowship hall at 9:00am, before splitting into our age groups for classroom and music activities. At the end of the Sunday school hour, around 9:45-9:50, we ask that parents who are picking up their children do so from the fellowship hall. This ensures kids are safely being picked up with supervision.

We will continue using the “Whirl” curriculum from Augsburg Fortress/Sparkhouse which we have used the last several years. This curriculum connects with the three-year church lectionary cycle so most Sundays there is connection between what students learn in Sunday school and in our worship readings.

While Sunday school will not meet over some long weekends during the school year, we will be scheduling fewer “no Sunday school” weekends this year. Three weekends in January and February where we have often had “off” in the past, we will have “intergenerational Sunday school” lessons for all ages to participate. Stay tuned!

As we are currently without a Sunday school coordinator, the Education Committee has assumed those responsibilities. A huge thank you to those who have volunteered to teach and help with Sunday school this year! Due to a shortage of teachers, we will not be offering PreK lessons this year. We could still use a few more teachers—the more people available in the rotation or as substitutes, the less load it is for our regular leaders!

A friendly reminder that United Lutheran Church is a peanut free building. This means no peanuts, tree nuts such as almonds, cashews, walnuts, or pistachios, or legumes, such as peas, chickpeas, lentils or soybeans; green beans and kidney beans are okay. Please keep this in mind if bringing food for fellowship after worship, potlucks, funerals or other events at church.

Bibles for Three-year-olds

During our September 15 worship service, we will be giving Spark Story Bibles to three year olds in our congregation. If you have a three year old, please join us for worship September 15 as we celebrate this gift with them and live into our baptismal promises to place in their hands the holy scriptures.

We will also be giving 4th graders Bibles this spring during their first communion instruction.

Youth Ministry Coordinator

United Lutheran Church is prayerfully seeking a Christian adult who loves God and loves youth, who wants to have fun with and mentor youth, primarily grades 7-12. This position may possibly include upper elementary children or young adults. This person will engage, support and equip parents in raising youth in the Christian faith.

Ideally, this person will: have a Lutheran background in the Christian church or have a willingness to work within a Lutheran church and its theology; be able to plan, organize, and communicate with others; be flexible, willing to learn and try new things.

Responsibilities:

Plan and lead 7-12 grade youth group events, at least once-per-month, but ideally more often. Youth events should include opportunities for faith formation, service to others and fun - all in a safe space.

Plan and coordinate summer 7-12 youth trip opportunities, including trip fundraising.

Work within a budget.

It is estimated that the Youth Ministry Coordinator will work twenty hours per month which includes planning as well as hands-on time. Some months may have less hours and months with trips will have considerably more.

Compensation:

$5,000 per year, to be paid monthly or twice per month and to be reviewed annually.

Continuing education as agreed upon with pastor and/or church council.

To apply, send cover letter and resume to Pastor Karl at ULC.

SYATP

SYATP means "See You At The Pole!"

Youth in grades 7-12, mark your calendars for a community youth event of song and prayer around the LAHS flagpole, Wednesday morning, September 25 at 7:50am.

Bring a friend, hang out with other Langdon area students, explore this year's theme "If..." and join in prayer with students around the globe!

A Sanctuary Denomination

August 5-10, our denomination, the ELCA, adopted a resolution to be a “sanctuary denomination.” As our church begins the conversation of what this action means, some media outlets have tried to answer the question for us. This has caused confusion and misinformation. What does this mean for the ELCA?

In its simplest form, becoming a sanctuary denomination means that the ELCA is publicly declaring that walking alongside immigrants and refugees is a matter of faith.

Being a sanctuary denomination does not call for any person, congregation or synod to engage in civil disobedience or any illegal actions.

Today, people migrate for all kinds of reasons. For some it might be hunger or employment while others are fleeing violence and are literally running for their lives. Most immigrants desire to be in their homeland, but to no fault of their own, there is no option other than to flee. Nearly 70 million people have been forced to leave their homeland. Those finding themselves and their families in horrific situations is at an all-time high. This is not God’s desire for God’s children. While we may have different ideas about how to fix a broken immigration system and may have different ways of loving our neighbors, our call to do so is central to our faith. This is where we begin.

Being a sanctuary denomination will look different in different contexts. While we don’t yet know the full scope of the work this declaration will open for the church, we do know that our faith communities are already doing sanctuary work. This may mean hosting English as a second language (ESL) classes; writing letters to representatives or providing housing to a community member facing deportation.

Except for our members whose ancestors were here before European settlement or others who were forced to come to the US against their will, the ELCA is an immigrant church. Lutherans started Lutheran Immigration and Refugee Service, one of the nine refugee resettlement agencies in the US. A generation ago, our own congregation welcomed refugees from Vietnam.

At our last churchwide assembly in 2016, we also committed to walking alongside Central American children and families fleeing their communities by passing the AMMPARO strategy (Accompanying Migrant Minors with Protection, Advocacy, Representation and Opportunities). Through the AMMPARO strategy, we are also working through our global partners in Central America to alleviate the conditions that cause people to migrate.

In baptism, we are brought into a covenantal relationship with Jesus Christ that commits us to strive for justice and peace in all the earth. Following the example of Martin Luther, we believe that advocacy is a crucial expression of baptismal identity. As a church, we have advocated for stopping the detention of children and families for decades and have taken steps to address the root causes of migration in a way that honors the humanity of people who must flee.

Being a sanctuary denomination means that we, as church together, want to be public and vocal about this work. At the same time, we will have conversations about what sanctuary means with many of our members and discern future actions and direction. Welcoming people is not a political issue for us—we have been doing it since the birth of the Christian church!—it is a matter of faith.

How are we being called to work for justice and peace in this place and in this time? I welcome your conversation as we seek to answer this important question. ~ Pastor Karl

Prayers of...

Joy

Congratulations to Zach & Andrea Jacobson on the birth of their new daughter, Maren Grace.

Congratulations to Ben Crockett and Christina Saylor, married July 27.

Congratulations to Kerlange & Armstrong Aristilde on the birth of their son, Ezekiel. Kerlange has been one of our primary Haitian translators and helpers in our ministry partnership in Haiti for the past five years. She had pregnancy difficulties and we are happy she and baby are doing well!

ULC invites you to be in prayer for those people listed. Please call the church office if you have additions to our prayer list.

Gifts of Grain

Did you know that farmers may find significant tax savings through donating grain directly to United Lutheran or another favorite charity? By doing this, the church or other charity gets the proceeds of selling the donated grain and the donating farmer gets tax deductions at a better rate than just cash donations. To learn more about this “bountiful” way of giving, be sure to visit with your tax advisor and be sure any donations are processed properly through the elevator.
