Hymn of Promise

Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Living in the northern hemisphere, we experience Easter in springtime...a time of new life, promises and possibilities. We see the grass turn green, flowers sprout and grow, trees bud and leaf out and the birth of birds, butterflies and animals. Our brothers and sisters in the southern hemisphere experience Easter during the fall. For them, the Easter hope is a promise, still unrevealed...the bulb, the seed and the cocoon. Much like it is for us this year as we wait for our long North Dakota winter to end. I know I'm eager for spring. I know, I for one am more than ready for warmer days. I'm anxiously anticipating the joy of planting seeds in the garden and I'm even kind of looking forward to mowing the lawn again! Our impatience, however, reaches beyond waiting for spring. Throughout life, in general, we become impatient to make sense of what seems senseless; whether it be long winters, the war in the Ukraine or suffering and death. We long for answers, for the unbearable and incomprehensible to be explained.

It is all a part of the cycle that God has created: life, death, new life, hope, pain and eternal life. For the new to come, the old must die. For hope to blossom, we must give up our grasp of what is, so that something better can be born. There is a moment of letting go, of accepting an ending, before the promise can become reality. We must accept what appears to be defeat before a greater victory can emerge.

Hymn of Promise, a beautiful hymn we will sing during the Easter season, speaks of our human experience and the journey we share together. "In the bulb there is a flower; in a seed, an apple tree; in cocoons, a hidden promise; butterflies will soon be free! In the cold and snow of winter, there's a spring that waits to be, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see. There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody; there's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me. From the past will come the future; what it holds a mystery, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see. In our end is our beginning; in our time, infinity; in our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity. In our death, a resurrection; at the last, a victory, unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see." While the hymn carries the promise of spring and the hope of Easter in its beautiful metaphors; it was written at a time when the author, Natalie Sleeth, was pondering the ideas of life, death, spring and winter, Good Friday and Easter, and the whole reawakening of the world that happens every spring. Whenever I sing this song or read the words, no matter how cold the day or how dark the night, I am reminded of the Easter promise that renews our hope and gives us the joy of life.

Our lives echo the parable of the seasons, no matter where we celebrate Easter. We believe that with God...despite our anxiety and often our doubt, all things are possible. As the hymn also says...in our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity. Alleluia! Christ is Risen! He is Risen Indeed! May our faith be blessed with growth throughout the 50 days of Easter! Happy Easter!

-Pastor Jodi

Many Thanks!

Thank You! Thank You! I want to extend a huge thank you to the entire United Lutheran Church family for letting me try new ways of worship during Lent! You have all been very supportive, participatory and encouraging. Thanks first of all to the youth, for stepping up and having to be a little out of your comfort zone to read, lead, participate in skits and provide special music. Thanks to all the parents who helped with the Lenten meals. Thanks to those who assisted with worship in many ways: preparing, participating, supporting and cleaning. A huge shout out to Helen Johnson and Shirley Robinson for their creative decorating of the altar area from Lenten ponderings to Easter joy and to Lindy Johnson for making the cross for our Lenten journey. Last, but not least, thank you to those who do the work behind the scenes to prepare and present our worship both in person and online: Kathie Johnson, Lisa Schuler, Julie Johnson, Dale Klein, our slide makers and our projectionists. Teamwork always leads to success!

FMSC Event

Thank You Note: On behalf of starvation impacted children in our world, thank you for your participation in our 2022 Greater Grand Forks Feed My Starving Children Mobile Pack Event. We cannot express enough to you, that you are the reason this event was successful both with your willingness to say yes to packing with us and to help us pay for the food.

Specifically, we want to thank you for helping us pay for the food we packed through your $750 donation which paid for 3,000 meals that we packed. This will pay for eight children to eat for a year. Your partnership is truly a blessing.

Serving the Savior Together with YOU!!!

Camp Hope

Each quarter of the year, United Lutheran will focus on a new stewardship project selected by the Stewardship Committee. The Stewardship Committee has chosen Camp Hope as the second quarter, recipient of blessings.

Monetary donations will be collected in a separate offering container at the back of the sanctuary, every Sunday, (April-June). At the end of June, a check will be sent to Park River Bible Camp to help with camperships for kids who are in foster care settings. Camp Hope is designed specifically for kids who have finished kindergarten to twelfth grade who are in foster care. It is a three-night, four-day camp experience that provides kids with a safe place to have fun, meet friends who are experiencing like situations, play games, join in camp fires and so much more. May God bless our United effort in supporting this stewardship project!

Senior Recognition

The Langdon Area Ministerial will be holding a Baccalaureate Service for all the area graduating seniors, Wednesday, May 18, at 7pm at St. Alphonsus. This service is open to friends and family of each graduate with refreshments.

We will be honoring our United Lutheran Church high school graduates at our 10am worship service on Sunday, May 29. At this service, we will be gifting our graduates with a quilt, hand-made by United Lutheran's quilting group.

Congratulations to our graduating seniors and may the Lord's face shine upon them and the Lord look upon them with favor as they continue with their next chapter! ULC Seniors are: Josie Long, Claire Hiltner, Addy Reidhammer and Marlee Hetletved.

Rogation Sunday

In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. He said, "Let the earth produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants, and fruit trees bearing fruit with their seeds inside, on the earth." And so it was. The earth produced vegetation: plants bearing seeds in their various kinds, and trees bearing fruit with their seed inside in their several kinds. God saw that it was good, (Genesis 1:1, 11-12).

Ready for a SPRING Adventure? This Sunday, May 1st has been designated as Rogation Sunday at ULC! "What is THAT?" you might ask. Great question! The word "rogation" comes from the Latin verb, "rogare." It means to ASK. So, in the season of Easter, as we celebrate the resurrection joy of new life, we will ASK for God's blessing upon the earth, the seeds and the equipment used for spring planting. Farmers and gardeners of all kinds...this one's for you! Bring your tractors, bring your planters, your tools and of course the seed! Let's fill the church sanctuary and parking lot with the equipment needed for spring planting. Come dressed as you are or as you would for work. Feed on God's word and be sent out to the fields and pastures of your life.

Sunday School/Confirmation/Youth

Greetings to everyone!

We are down to our last two Sunday School Lessons. The Great Commission on May 1st and The Holy Spirit at Pentecost on May 8th. On May 8th, we will have a fun event planned for the kids along with the lesson. Sunday school students will also be singing in that day. The Education Committee would like to thank everyone that took time out of their schedules to teach this year.

The Education Committee would like to thank everyone that donated for the cake/bake auction and the generous support from the bidders! A BIG Thank You goes to Greg Goodman for being the auctioneer!!!

Vacation Bible School will be held May 31st-June 3. We will be sending registration forms home with the Sunday school kids and posting it on Facebook, when we receive them. If anyone is interested in housing the counselors, please let me know or call the church office.

A large class of 4th Graders received their bibles and First Communion during Lent and Easter (14 students!) Due to the number of students, family events and weather conditions, the students weren't all able to be together at one time in this large step in their faith.

Confirmation will continue to meet on Wednesdays at 6PM through May 11th. Youth Group will also meet that evening at 7PM on May 11.

Grace & Peace,
Kristin McDonald,
Education Committee Co-Chair
